NOTES OF LOCAL INTEREST.

THE HOLY BIRTH.

Full 1900 years ago,
The Holy Bible tells us so,
The Babe of Bethlehem was born:
Oh! greet the welcome Christmas morn.

The holy angels sang with joy
As they beheld the new-born Boy;
That sacred song was anthemed then,
'Twas joy to earth, good will to men.

It roused the shepherds from afar,
Were guided by a shining star,
Stood above the humble stranger,
Led the wise men to the manger.

The Babe to perfect manhood grew,
But only "God," in justice knew
The sacrifice the Man must make,
To ransom all for Adams sake.

Now, echoes forth the second voice,
'Tis the call of the eleventh hour;
Hark! hear the message from on high,
The earth's redemption draweth nigh.

Hear the trump from the watch tower:
'Tis the call of the eleventh hour;
The penny sought, thy God will pay.

Ho! reapers of life's harvest vow
Hold fast the tillage Gospel plow;
Go harvest in my field today,
'Midst the storm while Babylon rages.

Fall into line with sickles sharp;
Keep close to your leader from the start:
If doing but the widow's mite
All is precious in "His" sight.

Beneath the hot mid-summer's sun
The gleaming time is sure begun;
Go feed the hungry, humble ones,
Discharge thy work as faithful sons.

The gospel net is pulled to shore;
The harvest time will soon be o'er;
Good fish, like wheat, complete in one;
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done.
—J. B. BOTT.

Early to Bed

and early to rise makes one healthy, happy and wise—especially if you take Herbine before retiring. A positive cure for Constipation, Dyspepsia and all liver complaints. Mrs. S—, Columbia, Tenn., writes: "I always keep a supply of your Herbine on hand. Am so pleased with the relief it gives in constipation and all liver complaints, that words can't express my appreciation." All Druggists.

The first edition of the Punkville Floridian, a four-page weekly edition of comedy and satire, made its bow to the public of Tallahassee on Saturday. The paper is edited and published by Mr. C. A. Goldsmith of this city, and has every promise of a successful career. Mr. Goldsmith is an old hand at the newspaper business, therefore this venture is not out of order for him. We wish him much success.

Fancy line of Handkerchiefs and everything in Neckwear, suitable for Christmas gifts, offered by Burns & Co.

Good Performances.

The second company of the Wills New Musical Comedy Company gave performances at the Opera House Wednesday and Thursday nights to very appreciative audiences, who were kept in an uproar all evening by the excellent comedian, James Leslie.

The cast was excellent throughout, and every one enjoyed both plays to the fullest extent.

Miss Daisy Stewart and her mother leave this week for Aucilla to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mr. J. Westcott Edmondson came over from Jacksonville to spend the holidays with his relatives and host of Tallahassee friends.

Beggar Prince Comic Opera Co. will sing their tuneful operas in this city for three performances commencing Friday, Dec. 28. Their repertoire includes "Birds of a Feather," opening bill, "Olivette" for matinee, and "Chimes of Normandy" Saturday night.

Hon. W. C. Hodges and Mr. Will Rhodes, who spent the first days of the week on business at Jacksonville, returned home Wednesday evening.

Prof. J. W. Wideman, formerly of this city but now of Tallahassee, was here yesterday. Prof. Wideman has accepted the State management of the State Life Insurance Co. of Louisville, Ky., and is making a tour of the State in the interest of the company. — Gainesville Sun, 18th: Prof. Wideman will be with his family for the holidays, and his Tallahassee friends are always delighted to welcome him home.

Death From Lockjaw

never follows an injury dressed with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent blood poisoning. Chas. Oswald, merchant, of Rensselaersville, N. Y., writes. "It cured Seth Burch, of this place, of the ugliest sore on his neck I ever saw." Cures Cuts, Wounds, Burns and Sores. 25c at all druggists.

Mrs. A. L. Brille left Wednesday for Atlanta, to spend Christmas with her daughter, who is attending the Agnes Scott College in that city.
